RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

2015-PRESENT Principal investigator “Portuguese Parliament: Agenda-setting and Law-making” Project financed by the Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia (IF/00382/2014)

2015-PRESENT Researcher in the project “Democracy in times of crisis: Power and Discourse in a three-level game”, Project financed by the Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia (PTDC/IVC-CPO/2247/2014) URL: <https://goo.gl/ExHizi>

2015-PRESENT Researcher in the project “Crisis, Political Representation and Democratic Renewal: The Portuguese case in the Southern European context”, Project financed by the Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia (PTDC/IVC-CPO/3098/2014) URL: <https://goo.gl/HMBMaK>

2014-PRESENT Principal investigator in the Portuguese team participating in the European project “Political Leaders in European Cities” (Coordinated by the University of Florence) This project deals with the role of Mayors and the transformation of political representation and careers at the local level.

2013-2015 Associate researcher for the project “Public preferences and Policy decision-making: a comparative analysis” Project financed by the Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia (PTDC/IVC-CPO/3921/2012)

This project aims at increasing our understanding of democratic party government and the relationship between the public opinion and the agenda-setting process in Portugal.

2010-PRESENT Co-manager of the ILMA (Italian-Law Making Database)

ILMA originated from an idea of a group of scholars affiliated with the Department of Social and Political Studies at the Università degli Studi di Milano, and it is one of the scientific products of the Center for the Observation of Legislatures (COoL). It is a relational database that combines information on Italian legislation, roll calls and political elites. It currently covers six Italian legislatures (1987-2008).

2010-2012 Member of the research unit of the University of Milan in the project “Institutional agenda setting: Actors, time, information.” co-financed by the Italian Ministry for Research and Higher Education (PRIN 2009, Protocol 2009TPW4NL_002, Principal Investigator: prof. Marco Giuliani).

2009-PRESENT Researcher and one of the Principal Investigators for the project “Italian Policy Agendas”

This is a joint research project involving the Universities of Milan, Siena and Malta (<http://italianpolicyagendas.weebly.com>). It aims at exploring the evolution of issue attention in various institutions (media, political parties, parliament, government) and its impact on public policy outcomes using an agenda-setting perspective. It is part of a larger international research network: the “Comparative Agendas Project”.

2008-2012 Researcher in the Italian team participating in the European project “Delors’ Myth: The scope and impact of Europeanization on law production”. The project aims are: 1) developing new methods to quantitatively measure the Europeanization of national public policies (i.e. the scope and extent national policies are shaped by EU law and policy); 2) analysing the impact of EU policy-making on the relationship between government and parliament in each of the nine countries under study.
